Position: Interim Artistic Director. (Part-time, Temporary)

Location: Flexible

Website: <http://www.harrisburggaymenschorus.org>

Salary and Benefits:

This position is a part-time, temporary, contractual position. The Artistic Director position is that of an independent contractor. Payment is negotiable, based on experience

Description of Position Duties:

The HGMC is seeking an Interim Artistic Director (IAD) for our Spring, 2021 concert period, to guide the chorus through the preparation for and virtual performance of a concert, to be broadcast online during the late Spring months (late May or early June 2021). All rehearsals will be held virtually, so the location for the IAD is entirely flexible. An accompanist for the chorus will also be contracted and will participate in all rehearsals and performances.

The IAD will identify the theme and concert programming, which is intended to resonate with the HGMC community and its audience. Additionally, the IAD will lead the rehearsals, culminating in a virtual performance. We anticipate this virtual concert may include songs performed by both the entire chorus and a number of small groups or soloists.

The IAD will coach and educate the chorus on vocal sound, including proper vocal technique.

Assist HGMC leadership in facilitating a welcoming, respectful and safe environment for all members during rehearsals and performance preparation.

Description of Position Qualifications:

The ability to select programming, conduct successful rehearsals, and prepare the choruses for our virtual concert is the prime responsibility of the interim artistic director.

Additionally, the successful candidate should have:

Demonstrated choral conducting experience. Experience in working with a video engineer in the preparation of a virtual concert is desired, but not required.

Experience and willingness to work with LGBTQ+ affirming community in a safe environment for all.

Ability to positively motivate and lead individuals and large groups.

Excellent interpersonal and communications skills.

Availability to lead Chorus rehearsal on Monday evenings 6:30-9:30pm between Early February and the concert.
