

Artistic Director Report

1. General report: The production committee is going to meet next week.
2. The Christmas show skit has been cast, and rehearsals begin Monday.
3. The big decisions that need to be made have to do with dress. We need to decide what the chorus will wear in Baltimore, pay the rent, and for the Christmas concerts. For pay the rent, I would say dress pants and dress shirt. If we are going to do HGMC polos, we need to make that very clear tomorrow so folks have time to get those shirts. If we are thinking tuxes for Christmas, we need to get tuxes ordered for the newbies ASAP. The Christmas show won't be affected by what we wear. Although, I must say that I have an affinity for the ugly sweater tradition that we've started. Tuxes seem a little glitzy for what we do at Christmas, and you all know I like hodge podge much more than uniformity, but again, look at me...I'm not exactly a well-put-together fella. All that is to say that you all know that I have no visual skills, so please feel free to decide as a board and let me know tomorrow.
